Apoyamos a Sergio Fajardo y su visión del futuro de las ciudades y el desarrollo regional de Colombia

Bajo el liderazgo de Sergio Fajardo como Alcalde, Medellín se convirtió en un modelo de transformación urbana justa. Comprometido con la justicia social y la gobernanza incluyente, Fajardo entendió que la raíz de la violencia es la desigualdad y que para combatirla, toda la sociedad y sus instituciones necesitaban priorizar la educación como motor de un nuevo imaginario cívico. Él declaró que los espacios públicos son espacios para la educación, lugares para construir una nueva cultura ciudadana movilizadora a través de acciones cívicas coordinadas. El mensaje de Fajardo ha inspirado a líderes políticos y urbanos alrededor del mundo en los últimos años.

Como Gobernador de Antioquia, Fajardo pudo expandir su visión sobre la educación, construyendo una red de parques educativos que se convirtieron en el marco para el crecimiento económico regional. Reconectar el desarrollo urbano y rural fue un elemento esencial en esta visión.

Como Presidente de Colombia, nosotros creemos que Sergio Fajardo gobernará con los mismos compromisos por un gobierno transparente, colaborativo e incluyente y por acciones en el territorio y resultados concretos de las políticas públicas, con una experiencia incomparable, pasión y convicción. Coincidimos con Sergio Fajardo en que la educación y la infraestructura pública son los motores económicos y cívicos para la transformación en territorios urbanos más sostenibles de las ciudades y regiones en Colombia y alrededor del mundo.
